

British Village

There is a nice old British street when you walk in the gates. With the melody of bagpipe and tradition attire makes you feel just like in Great Britain. There are steam locomotive museum, 15 inch gauge railway, antique toy museum and British miscellaneous goods shops.

Canadian Village

Canadian Village Canada: the country full of forests and greeneries. It's made modeled after Nelson city which is a sister city in Shuzenji. The shutter chance for which the scene by which the Romney Railway crosses the Kootnay Bridge. The photo spot is in front of the Nelson Hall (Kaleidoscope Museum).

Izu Village

It is a slope covered by stones that takes advantage of the natural topography, and it is a highway that is likely to appear in historical play. A variety of shops stand in the Izu Village, where the crowds of people gather. We recommend you to take a break in Izu village after a long walk.

Japanese Garden

Japanese Garden is a place full of tradition Japanese atmosphere and rich nature. The garden is filled with trees and flowers as well as making the most use of the climate and topography of Shuzenji. It is also a place where you can calm you mind by seeing the color of the sky changing slowly and the different faces of Japan in four seasons.

Craftsman Village

The village is surrounded with the tradition Japanese art craft atmosphere and nostalgic feelings. Variety kinds of tradition art craft are displayed in the village. How about touch and experience the art crafts by making one of your own? Mt. Fuji observation deck is the best spot for you to see the beautiful mountains and the magnificent Mt. Fuji. ※Visibility might be affected by the weather.

Romney Bus and Railway

The Romney Railway, which connects the British village and Canada Village, is modeled after the Romney Hythe and Dymchurch Railway in England. There are also a classic British bus that takes you from the British Village to Japanese Garden by passing the Canada Village and Craftsmen Village.
